

COMMENT UPON THIS RICHARD III CARTOON

a) Contravention / amende	a bag
b) Un os	a bone
c) brandir, porter	a pad
d) carnet	a cap
e) montrer	a charge
f) une sacoche	a notebook
g) un képi	a tall order
h) un panneau	a pad
i) un carnet	a vest
j) un gilet de sécurité	a sign
k) devoir	to dig up the past
l) faire des fouilles	to do some research
m) Une somme énorme	to watch over
n) avoir l'air perdu	to excavate
o) surveiller	to hold
	to check (whether....or....)
	to owe someone money
	to look puzzled
	to look puzzled
	to have to do something
	an extravagant amount

QUESTIONS (PAIRWORK)

Why does the bearded man wear a yellow vest ? Why is he holding a bone ?

Why does the other man wear a uniform ? What is he doing in the car park ?

Someone is going to pay a big charge. Who and why ?

If the charge amounts to £10 per hour of illegal parking, how much is the fine going to be ?

More vocabulary

he is here

to

his job consists in

he has

"I DON'T CARE IF HE WAS THE KING OF ENGLAND, HE OWES US 528 YEARS OF PARKING CHARGES."

justed

he is going to

to amount to

to multiply by